- c. Specific skill requirements (qualitative, survey design, including language): Spanish (spoken and written), survey creation and information gathering, ability to review results and create implementation plan.
 - d. Is the Project paid or unpaid? Is there any in-kind support (e.g., housing)? This would be an unpaid position. While student is in Honduras, PWW is willing to help locate safe housing, provide office space and travel related expenses to the project.
 - e. Timeline (students are typically available to travel to the site between May and August, but can work with the team both before and after this work): The earlier portion of this timeframe would work best due to rainy season.
4. What should students submit when applying (CV, cover letter)?
 - a. A CV and cover letter, sent to the email address above would be needed.
 - b. By when should students apply? By February 28, 2019
5. Emory University faculty contact (if any):
