

Global Field Experience Opportunities in WASH 2020 – Summary

Organization	Project Name	Country	Contact
Global Water 2020	Spring Intern	Washington, DC USA	Kelly Bridges kbridges@globalwater2020.org
Rollins School of Public Health	WASH: Infant Health in Ecuador Qualitative Research Opportunity	WASH: Infant Health in Ecuador Qualitative Research Opportunity	Courtney Victor Courtney.m.poulos@emory.edu
Sanergy	Impact of pit emptying on health of manual pit emptiers, development standard operating procedures for safe emptying and solid waste management solutions.	Nairobi, Kenya	Lindsay Stradley lindsay@saner.gy Wali Mwalugongo wali.mwalugongo@saner.gy
St. Judes Research Hospital	Barriers and Enablers of PEWS Implementation in Resource-Limited Settings	Latin America	Karen Andes kandes@emory.edu
Universidad San Francisco de Quito USFQ	Community Health	Quito, ECUADOR	Alex Rendon arendon@usfq.edu.ec
World Vision	Sustainability and User Experiences of WASH in HCF Infrastructure and Community Mobilization Interventions	Zambia, Zimbabwe, Rwanda	Ben Tidwell – btidwell@worldvision.org 1-904-322-4510
World Vision	WASH: Assessing the Effectiveness and Equity of “Sanitation Before Water” Approach	Malawi, Mozambique, and/or Zambia	Ben Tidwell – btidwell@worldvision.org 1-904-322-4510
World Vision	WASH: Determinants of successful use of private insurance schemes for water point sustainability	South African Region	Ben Tidwell – btidwell@worldvision.org 1-904-322-4510

Global Field Experience Opportunities in WASH 2020 – Summary

World Vision	Understanding Sanitation-Related Well-Being in a Rural Setting	Ethiopia, Kenya, Mozambique, or Tanzania	Ben Tidwell – btidwell@worldvision.org 1-904-322-4510
--------------	--	--	--